A collection of old ARMS posts from my wattpad account

by AxolKat42

Summary

I was clearing my Wattpad account of old drafts and crap that I never posted and I could a few old random posts related to ARMS. Most of them aged like milk due to poor grammar and/or conflicting with my current headcanons, so I made a couple edits to these, but they're otherwise untouched from how they used to be.

Notes

Back on my Wattpad account, I used to post some random compilations of Incorrect Quotes of ARMS fighters (and a couple Punch-Out Characters) that were just a bunch of Vines that I liked. I have since unpublished them but I decided to reupload them here for fun. There might be spoilers for an AU I'm working on.

ARMS Fighter Stereotypes

Chapter Summary

I tried copying GG Gabriel Gaming's Splatoon 2 stereotypes series, but I described what someone was like based off who they mained in ARMS.

Spring Man:

- Why do I feel that your obsessed with memes?
- You more than likely died your hair neon blue at least once.
- Played this game for over 1000 hours.
- This guy's hair is literally made out of toothpaste I swear.

Ribbon Girl:

- If you play splatoon you stan Callie.
- You have her theme song saved as your ringtone.
- Favorite music is pop no questions asked.
- Got the fan cams ready for war.

Ninjara:

- Waist deep in crippling student loan debt.
- "If he won party crash bash he would be in smash"
- You tried to get all the badges but failed.
- Somehow you teleported out of bounds and I don't know how.

Master Mummy:

- So he's wrapped in toilet paper?
- This guy ain't that buff.
- You hate your friends.
- THERE HE IS! THAT'S THE FUCKER THAT'S STOLE ALL THE TOILET PAPER!

Mechanica:

- You are the ultimate fangirl.
- Tech geek.
- "Maybe if you stanned loona your dad wouldn't have left"
- Can you help me cheat in my next test?

Min Min:

- All hail the ramen queen.
- Who wants to play smash bro- SHUT THE FUCK UP IM TRYNA SLEEP!
- You want her hat.
- I'm low-key hungry now.

Helix:

- This game taught me more about DNA than science ever could.
- What the hell is he made of?
- You really did just scare your friend to actual death didn't you?
- Yep you did, let me join you next time.

Byte and Barq:

- Good boi
- Good boi
- Good boi
- You love dogs.

Twintelle:

- I swear if you bring up r34 one more time I will carve an entire bible verse into your stomach.
- Slay queen.
- You love to piss people off in ranked mode.
- I hate how some people only know of ARMS just because she has so much porn online. Like I sorta get the appeal, but why is there so much?

Kid Cobra:

- What's behind his mask?
- Snek arms.
- You're an "edgy" 5 year old.
- 360 NO SCOPE BOI

Max Brass:

- How in the hell did you complete this game?
- You somehow have every badge in the game.
- Showoff.
- Idk what else to put.

Lola pop:

- You drank too many 5 hour energies before you started to play this game.
- Yeet the nunchuck.
- Probably got some sort of inflation fetish.
- I severely doubt you're straight or cis.

Missango:

- Wait this guy was a character?
- Why do I keep forgetting about him?
- Seriously he plays into the lore so much but we keep forgetting about him.
- I believe in poison supremacy.

Springtron:

- You're the quite kid.
- Despite having a crap ton of skill you don't really use it.

- Pew pew fuck the objective.
- Something is up with this guy and its my job to find out what.

Dr.Coyel:

- Not the quite kid but a friend of the quite kid.
- "I've come to make an announcement! Max Brass is a bitch ass mother fucker!"
- Why do you like the slowest character in the game?
- Damn, when they ended the updates they ended them with a character that has major lore ties.

Old ARMS 2 reveal trailer concept I had

Chapter Summary

I made this in 2022 while running on pure copium for a hypothetical ARMS 2. In case you couldn't tell, I'm still running on that copium.

So picture this.

Your watching E3 2022 (ok so E3 was canceled) and you're having the time of your life. A bunch of new things are announced, but suddenly the announcer says they have one last thing to show us and to please take a look.

The screen fades to black with the exception of some lighting and we then see a coiled headphone wire extend across the screen. Three more things extend across the screen. They were some twisty vines, a guitar string, and a slinky. Once they all retreat back to the right off screen, the camera pans and we see where all came from. We see four new fighters. They're a DJ with headphone wires for ARMS, a guitarist with guitar strings for ARMS, a gardener with vines for arms, and a toy maker with slinkies for arms.

We pan the camera over to the left and we see Springman, Ribbon Girl, Ninjara and Min Min all facing the new fighters. The camera then heads to the middle of the screen before a logo pops up that reads "ARMS 2". I believe you are now crying tears of joy or just freaking out in general so you don't get to see much of the brief game play. Just know it mostly consists of battles of both the new guys and almost everyone from the first game minus Dr.Coyel and Springtron. What isn't battles is shots of the new hub world referred to as the ARMS HQ, or strange shots of either the temple grounds or what appears to be the inner depths of the ARMS labs.

Suddenly after a certain shot of the labs that has Hedlok and a slightly darker and more menacing version of Dr.Coyel, the camera glitches out. It then glitches back in, but the screen has the overlay of a video camera. We're in a some sort of cave with markings and symbols we don't recognize. But we hear an echoey, slightly robotic voice speak.

The voice mentions how it had been a while since it escaped, but now they're there. They end saying how they'll see each other soon, before picking up the camera to reveal who it is. It was none other than the robot clone himself, Springtron, now sporting a red hoodie. He turns off the camera, but not before saying that he'll "put an end to this once and for all".

After the screen cuts to black we see a release date. Holiday of 2022. What, how the hell is this game releasing in 2022? Wasn't this revealed less than a couple minutes ago?!

The creator of ARMS then shows up on screen to basically say "Hello I'm the guy who made ARMS and now I'm making a sequel". He mentions that the sequel was supposed to happen in 2020, but due to the pandemic it had to be pushed back, but they were still able to make some progress before the pandemic happened and pick up progress in 2021. Before the direct ends, he also announces that the dark horse comics series is nearing completion and should be releasing some time in fall of this year.

The E3 direct then ends and you start to wonder if you and many others are in a coma.

I wish this were real. If I end up predicting ARMS 2, don't be surprised when you hear me scream "OH MY GOD LETS FUCKING GO!!!" from really far away in absolute joy and hype.

Please drop by the Archive and comment to let the creator know if you enjoyed their work!
